CHOLERA.

Quite a panic occurred at Wheeling on Friday, in consequence of a report that a steamboat had arrived there from Cincinnati, having several cases of cholera on board. Upon investigation such proved not to be the fact. Other boats are on the way up, one of them bound to Pittsburgh, reported to have had several deaths of cholera, since leaving Cincinnati. The enforcement of quarantine has been suggested, and, we believe put in operation at Wheeling as a measure of prevention. Doubtless all reasonable means ought to be used to prevent the spread of the pestilence; and yet, with constant railroad communication between all of the more important places in the country embargoes upon river travel do not seem to be a hopeful instrument for protection. The great reliance must be upon the enforcement of wholesome sanitary regulations of general application. So far, Pittsburgh and the adjoining incorporated districts, have escaped remarkably. A confident expectation pervades our people that we are to escape entirely. But this expectation ought not to stand in the way of manifest precautions.

THE Democrats are sorely puzzled. They do not know upon what foundation their platform rests. They have made the Johnson plank movable—to be shifted at pleasure—for they place no confidence in the friendship of their newly found friends. Men who have deceived others in all probability will again prove false to those with whom they affiliate, inasmuch as it is difficult to restrain treacherous instincts. The Democratic party cannot with impunity spurn these men. Their only hope for political supremacy is in coalition. Within themselves they are powerless, and yet the price demanded for this questionable aid certainly destroys the dream of success to their own party. In joining hands with the Johnson men they sink their own independence and take back seats. The more they labor to create dissension in the Union Republican ranks, the closer they unite their opposition and the further they are away from political power. Verily, the case of the Democratic party is a critical one and will baffle the skill of their wisest doctors.

HIESTER CLYMER is by no means popular among the Democratic party leaders in the eastern portion of the State. Indeed, prominent Democrats of Philadelphia have but little respect for the Berks county politician, and are not slow in thus expressing themselves. They are too loyal to their party to openly oppose him, and satisfy their consciences by keeping themselves entirely out of the political ring. It is also true that a great many of the Keystone Club of that city secretly desire the defeat of Clymer, and are urging upon the Johnson-Cowan clique the necessity of forcing him from the field by nominating some other candidate. Every day Geary's chances of success grow much better, and if present appearances are to be taken as an index for coming events, the soldier-candidate will be elected by a majority even much larger than his warmest friends anticipate.

WE are indebted to M. C. Meigs, Quartermaster General, for two pamphlets—one containing the names of the Union soldiers interred in the Cemeteries at Fortress Monroe and Hampton, Va., the other, those interred in the Eastern District of Texas; Rio Grande District, Department of Texas; Camp Ford, Tyler, Texas; and Corpus Christi, Texas.

THE late Republican Convention of Lancaster county, after nominating two State Senators and four Members of Assembly, instructed them to vote for Mr. Stevens as long as he held himself a candidate. The Examiner says this means, if he cannot be elected, that he shall prevent the election of any mere "twaddler or mere hunter after the flesh pots of office."

THE Johnson Republicans and old-line Democrats of New York are getting up a State Nominating Convention in concert. It is supposed Senator Murphy, of Brooklyn, will be its candidate for Governor, and Gen. Pruyn, of Albany, for Lieutenant Governor. Dean Richmond and Thurlow Weed are acting together in this matter.

THE Republicans of Armstrong county will hold a mass meeting at Kittanning, September 4th. Speakers, Gov. Hamilton, of Texas, Gov. Curtin, Hons. Thomas Williams, Thomas J. Bigham, Gen. Harry White, and John M. Kirkpatrick and Thomas M. Marshall, Esqs., of Pennsylvania.

THE fact that the texts of Gen. Sheridan's dispatches to members of the Executive departments are withheld, must be taken as evidence that the original, garbled publication did him great injustice. The same conclusion is reached by direct testimony from New Orleans.

THE COMMITTEE appointed by the Philadelphia Convention to deliver an attested copy of the doings of the President, gave that functionary another opportunity to berate Congress and to display his egotism, which he did not fail to improve, as our telegrams this morning show.

THE stampede of loyal men from North Carolina continues. The telegraph reports two hundred and twenty-seven of them on a single train, bound to Indiana, in pursuit of peace. Great is the President and his Policy.

THE Richmond journals are indignant at the Philadelphia Convention. They marvel why the Southern delegates voted for the Platform Resolutions. The marvel is explained by two words—presidential dictation.

MR. A. H. STEPHENS was at Philadelphia, but was not allowed by the managers of the Convention to make himself heard. Free speech was suppressed in order to deceive the people by a semblance of harmony.

THE REPUBLICANS of Bradford county held their first mass meeting on the 24th inst. Their member of Congress, Judge MERCUR, and their State Senator, Rev. Mr. LANDON, will be the chief speakers.

THE DEMOCRATS of the Bradford District are snubbing TRACY, CLARK and MONROE, renegade Republicans, who want to go to Congress. They like the treason, but despise the traitors.

MARSHALL M. KENT, of Morgantown, West Virginia, is an independent candidate for Congress.

THE UNION STATE CONVENTION of West Virginia, will meet at Parkersburg, on the 30th instant.

Pure Blackberry

Is one of the most useful articles to have in the house during the hot season—especially is it good for any derangement of the bowles, and harmless even for infants. The great difficulty heretofore has been where to get it. Fleming, druggist, No. 84 Market street, has at length supplied the want, having sent to Cambria county, on the mountains, where the blackberries grow in such great profusion, and secured a strictly pure article. We mention this for the benefit of those of our readers who may wish to have it in the house.

Habitual Constipation.

HOW TO EFFECT A CERTAIN AND PERMANENT CURE.

Some occupations of life predispose to Costiveness, especially those which allow but little exercise. Persons who contract this unfortunate habit of body, under such circumstances, might possibly be relieved by changing their sedentary employments for others of a more active kind; but this is by no means certain. Habitual costiveness is a very obstinate disorder. All the ordinary so-called remedies invariably aggravate it. Nothing can be more injurious than the continued use of strong aperients. They at first irritate, and finally almost peralyze the bowels—rendering them so torpid that enormous doses of cathartic medicines have no effect upon them. A mild aperient, combined with a gentle stimulant, is the true remedy; and a combination in the happiest proportion of these ingredients is found in HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. This famous Stomachic invigorates the whole intestinal canal, while quietly removing from its convolutions all impediments to a free passage through them. No mere purgative has this double operation. No ordinary stimulant effects the desired object. Cases of Constipation abandoned as hopeless by distinguished medical men have been cured in a few weeks by the Bitters. To those who have tried all the medicines of the dispensatory in vain, we say try this irresistible stimulant and aperient. There is no sufficient reason why constipation should be the consequence of sedentary habits. HOSTETTER'S BITTERS, by supplying the vigor which would otherwise be derived from exercise, will in all cases enable the system to perform its excretory functions regularly and healthfully.

FROM WASHINGTON.

The Attorney General's Opinion in Regard to the President's Appointments—United States Marshall Bullitt Charged with Complicity in Cotton Frauds—The Award for Booth's Captors now Ready—New Custom House at Charleston.

NEW YORK, Aug. 18.—The morning papers have the following specials from Washington: The Attorney General has nearly completed an elaborate opinion on authority of the President, to appoint to office, during the recess of Congress, persons who have been rejected by the Senate. The point has been raised to contest the President's authority in this respect. The Attorney General will show in an exhaustive argument that both the law and practice since the foundation of the government affirm the existence of this prerogative of the Executive.

Affidavits have been filed at the Executive Department, charging Cuthbert Bullitt, United States Marshall of Louisville, with complicity in cotton frauds in that State.

The drafts in payment of the awards made to the captors of the assassins, Booth, Payne, Atzerot, and Harrold, are now ready for delivery to the claimants at the treasury office. The whole sum amounts to about one hundred and five thousand dollars.

The new Custom House to be built in Charleston, South Carolina, which was destroyed during the war, has been contracted for. It will cost $250,000.

Since the termination of the war the Constructing Engineer Board of the Treasury Department have planned for an expenditure of five million dollars in the repairs and construction of public buildings south.

Saddle Race Between Butler and Dexter—Dexter Winner in 2:18—Base Ball Match.

BUFFALO, Aug. 18.—About thirty thousand people were present at the great saddle race this afternoon between the Dexter and Butler. The day was fine and the track in good order, though horsemen say that the Buffalo track is not near as good as the one Dexter made his great time on, but Dexter showed to-day the best time ever made by a trotting horse. The first heat was 2:21 4-5. Butler was ridden by James Eoff, and was several lengths behind. In the second race Dan Mace rode Butler, but poor time was made, as Butler broke badly. The heat was made in 2:26. In the third heat both had a good send off, Butler ahead, but Dexter soon passed him, and came home the winner in the unprecedented time of 2:18—without a break.

In the base ball match this afternoon between the Niagara Club of Buffalo and Hudson River Club of Newberg, New York, the Niagara beat, scoring 40 against 17.

The Frigate Lancaster on Her Way to Callao—Costa Rica Refuses to Join the South American Alliance—Monte Christo Almost Totally Destroyed—Spanish Fleet at Tahita—Admiral Nunez not Expected to Survive his Wounds.

NEW YORK, August 18.—Panama dates of the 1st announce the arrival of the United States frigate Lancaster. She was to leave immediately for Callao.

Costa Rica has refused to join the South American alliance.

The town of Monte Christo, in Ecuador, has been almost totally destroyed by fire.

Most of the Spanish fleet has arrived at Tahita, en route for Manilla.

Admiral Nunez was not expected to survive his wounds.

Meeting of Army Officers to Endorse the President's Reconstruction Policy—Soldiers and Sailors Convention to be held at Chicago.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18.—A meeting of officers of the United States army, favorable to the Reconstruction Policy of the President, and the action of the National Union Convention at Philadelphia, was held at Willard's Hotel last evening. Major General Steadman was elected President of the meeting, and Gen. Ewing, of Kansas, was appointed Secretary. It was resolved to hold a convention of soldiers and sailors of the United States, at Chicago, on the 17th of September, with a view of approving the objects of the late Convention and policy of the President. A committee was appointed to issue a call for this purpose.

Arrangements of the Committee Appointed by the Late Philadelphia Convention to Present President Johnson with an Official Copy of its Proceedings.

WASHINGTON, August 18.—The Committee appointed by the National Union Convention to wait upon the President for the purpose of presenting to him an official copy of the proceedings of the Convention, held a meeting this morning and postponed until one o'clock, the time for so doing. It was originally intended that 10 A. M. should be the hour at which their reception would be had. The committee will be followed by the delegates to the late Convention, and after them the citizens will form in regular order at half past twelve o'clock and proceed to the Executive Mansion.

Movements of Alex. H. Stephens.

PHILADELPHIA, August 18.—Hon. Alexander H. Stephens left for Milledgeville this morning. It was impossible for him to remain in this city any longer, owing to important business engagements. His physical health has prevented him from addressing the public, as he intended, but it is possible he will deliver a series of lectures in Northern cities during the winter.

Committee Wait Upon the President.

COPY OF PROCEEDINGS PRESENTED.

Speech of Reverdy Johnson and the President's Reply.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18.—About one o'clock on Saturday the Committee appointed by the Philadelphia Convention, headed by a band of music, waited on President Johnson. They were conducted into the east room by Marshall Gooding, and so arranged as to form a circle. The President soon appeared accompanied by Secretaries McCulloch, Wells and Browning and Postmaster General Randall.

Hon. Reverdy Johnson, on behalf of the Committee then addressed the President. His speech was a recapitulation of the action of the Philadelphia Convention, at the same time presenting him with an authentic copy of the proceedings of the same. He referred to the present state of affairs, and to the feeling existing in different portions of the Union, and concluded his remarks by referring to the action of the President in relation to Maximilian's proclamation blockading the Mexican ports.

When Mr. Johnson had concluded the President said, "Mr. Chairman and Gentlemen of the Committee," Language is inadequate to express the emotions and feelings produced on this occasion. Perhaps I could express more by permitting silence to speak and you to infer what I ought to say. In listening to the address your eloquent and distinguished Chairman has just delivered, of the proceedings of the Convention, as they transpired, partook of the inspiration that prevailed in the Convention. When I recieved a dispatch by two of its distinguished members, conveying in terms the scene which has just been described of South Carolina and Massachusetts arm in arm marching into that vast assemblage, and thus giving evidence that the extremes had come together, and that for the future they were united as they had been in the past, for the preservation of the union,—when the dispatch informed me that in that vast body of men distinguished for intellect and wisdom, every eye was suffused with tears on beholding the scene,—I could not finish reading the dispatch, to one associated with me in the office for my own feelings overcame me," (cheers." I think we may justly conclude we are moving under a proper inspiration, and that we need not be mistaken that the finger of an overruling and unerring Providence is in this matter."(Loud cheers."

The nation is in peril. We have just passed through a mighty, a bloody, a momentous ordeal, yet do not find ourselves free from the difficulties and dangers that at first surrounded us. While our brave men have performed their duties, both officers and men, (turning to General Grant, who stood at his right,) while they have won laurels imperishable, there is still greater and more important duties to perform, and while we have had their co-operation in the field, we now need their support in our efforts to perpetuate peace. (Loud cheers.) So far as the Executive Department of the government is concerned, the effort has been made to restore the Union, to heal the breach, pour oil into the wounds which were consequent upon the struggle, and to speak, in common phrase to prepare, as the learned and wise physician would, a plaster, healing in character and co-extensive with the wound. (Loud cheers.) We thought, and yet think, that we had partially succeeded, but as the work progressed, as reconciliation seemed to be taking place and the country becoming united, we found a disturbing and moving element opposing us.

In alluding to that element, I shall go no farther than did your Convention, and the distinguished gentleman who delivered to me the report of its proceedings. I shall make no reference to it that I do not believe the time and the occasion justify. We have witnessed in one Department of the Government every effort, as it were, to prevent the restoration of peace and harmony in the Union. We have seen hanging upon the verge of the Government as it were a body called, or which assumed to be the Congress of the United States, in fact a Congress of only part of the States. We have seen this Congress assume and pretend to be for union when its every step and act tended to perpetuate disunion and make a disruption of the States inevitable instead of promoting reconciliation and harmony. Its Legislation has partaken of the character of penalties, retaliation and revenge. This has been the course and the policy of one Department of your Government.

The humble individual who is now addressing you stands the representative of another department of the Government. The manner in which he was called upon to occupy that position shall not be alluded to on this occasion. Suffice it to say that he is here under the Constitution of the country, and being here, by virtue of its provisions, he takes his stand upon the charter of our liberties as the great rampart of civil and religious liberty. (Prolonged cheering.) Having been taught in my early life to hold it sacred, and having practiced upon it during my whole public career, I shall ever continue to reverence that Constitution—the Constitution of the fathers of our country—and to make it my guide. (Enthusiastic cheers.) I know it has been said, and I must be permitted to indulge in the remark, that the Executive Department of the Government has been tyrannical. Let me ask this audience of distinguished gentlemen around me here to-day to point to a vote I ever gave—to a speech I ever made—to a single act of my whole public life—that has not been against tyranny and despotism. As to myself, the elements of my nature, the pursuits of my life, have not made me, either in my feelings or in my practice, aggressive. My nature, on the contrary, is rather defensive in its character, but I will say that, having taken my stand upon the broad principles of liberty and the Constitution, there is not power enough on earth to drive me from it. (Prolonged cheering.)

Having placed myself upon that broad platform, I have not been awed, dismayed, or intimidated by either threats or encroachments, but have stood there in conjunction with patriotic spirits, sounding the tocsin of alarm whenever I deemed the citadel of liberty in danger (Great applause.) I said on previous occasions, and repeat now, that all that was necessary in the great struggle against tyranny and despotism was, that the struggle should be sufficiently audible for the American people to hear and properly understand. They did hear, and looking on, and seeing who the contestants were, and what that struggle was about, they determined that they would settle this question on the side of the Constitution and of the principles. (Cries of that's so, and applause.) I proclaim here to-day, as I have on other occasions, that my faith is abiding in the great mass of the people. In the darkest moment of the struggle, when clouds seemed to be most lowering, my faith, instead of giving way, loomed far up through the dark cloud far beyond. I saw that all would be safe in the end. (Cheers.)

My countrymen, we all know that in the language of Thomas Jefferson, tyranny and despotism ever can be exercised and exerted more effectually by the many than the one. We have seen a Congress gradually encroach step by step upon Constitutional rights and violate day after day and month after month the fundamental principles of the government. We have seen a Congress that seemed to forget that there was a constitution, and that there was a limit to the sphere and scope of legislation. (Renewed cries of that's so.) We have seen a Congress in a minority assume to exercise powers which, if allowed to be carried out, would result in despotism or monarchy itself. (Cries of that's so, and enthusiastic cheers given for the President.) This is truth and because others, as well as myself have seen proper to appeal to the patriotism and republican feeling of the country, we have been denounced in the most fierce terms; slander upon slander, vituperation upon vituperation, of the most villainous character, has made its way through the public press.

What, gentlemen, has been your and my sin? What has been the cause of our offending? I will tell you—daring to stand by the Constitution of our fathers. (Cheers.) The President here approached the spot where Senator Johnson was standing and said:

"I consider the proceedings of this Convention, sir, more important than those of any Convention that ever assembled in the United States. (Great applause.) When I look with my mind's eye upon that collection of citizens coming together voluntarily and sitting in council with ideas, with principles and views commensurate with the whole people and contrast it with the collection of gentlemen who are trying to destroy the country I regard it as more important than any Convention that has sat, at least since 1787, (Loud cheers.) I think I may say also that the declarations that were there made are equal to the Declaration of Independence itself, and here to-day I pronounce it a second Declaration of Independence. (Cries of glorious, and most enthusiastic and prolonged applause.)

Your address and declarations are nothing more nor less than a representation of the Constitution of the United States. [Cries of "Good!" and cheers.] Yes, I will go farther, and say that the declarations you have made, that the principles you have enumerated in your address, are a second proclamation of emancipation to the people of the United States. [Renewed applause.] For in proclaiming and reproclaiming these great truths, you have laid down a constitutional platform upon which all can make one common cause and stand together for restoration of the States and the preservation of the government. Without reference to party questions, it is the salvation of our country, for our country rises above all party considerations or influences. [Cries of "Good!" and cheers.] How many are in the United States that now require to be free, that have the shackles upon their limbs, and are bound as rigidly as though they were in fact in slavery. I repeat, then, that your declaration is the second proclamation of emancipation to the people of the United States, and offers a common ground upon which all patriots can stand.

Mr. Chairman and gentlemen, let me in this connection ask you what have I to gain more than the advancement of the public welfare. I am as much opposed to the indulgence of egotism as any one, but here in a conventional manner, while formally receiving the proceedings of this Convention, I may be permitted again to ask what have I to gain, consulting human ambition more than I have gained except in one thing. My race is nearly run. I have been placed in high office, which I occupy under the Constitution of the country, and I may say, have held from the lowest to the highest, almost every position to which a man may attain in our Government. I have passed through every position from an Alderman—and surely gentlemen, this should be enough to gratify a reasonable ambition.

If I wanted authority, or if I wished to perpetuate my own power, how easy it would have been to hold and wield that which was placed in my hands by the measures called the Freedmen's Bureau Bill. (Laughter and applause.) With an army which it placed at my discretion I could have remained at the capitol of the United States, and with its fifty millions of appropriations at my disposal; with the machinery to be worked by my own hands; with my satraps and departments in every town and village, and then with the Civil Rights Bill following as an auxiliary, (Laughter) in connection with all the other appliances of the Government, I could have proclaimed myself Dictator. (Cries of that's true, and three cheers for the President.) But gentlemen my pride and my ambition have been to occupy that position which retains all power in the hands of the people. (Great cheering.) It is upon that I have always relied; it's upon that I rely now, (a voice, and the people will not disappoint you.) and I repeat that neither the taunts nor jeers of Congress, nor of a calumniating press can drive me from my purpose. (Great applause.)

I acknowledge no superior except my God, the author of my existence, and the people of the United States. (Prolonged and enthusiastic cheering.) For the one I try to obey all his commands as best I can compatible with my poor humanity, and for the other in a political and representative sense. The high behests of the people have always been respected and obeyed by me. (Loud cheers.) Mr. Chairman I have said more than I intended for the kind allusions to myself contained in your address, and in regard to the resolutions adopted by the Convention, let me remark that in this crisis, and at this period of my public life, I hold above all price, and shall ever recur with feelings of profound gratification to the last resolution containing the endorsement of the Convention, emanating spontaneously from the great mass of the people.

I trust and hope that my future action may be such that you and the Convention may not regret the assurance of confidence you have expressed of me. (Cries of "We are sure of it.") Before separating, my friends, one and all, Committee and strangers, please accept my sincere thanks for the kind manifestations of regard and respect you have exhibited on this occassion. I repeat, I shall always continue to be guided by a firm and conscientious conviction of duty, and that always gives one courage under the constitution, which I make my guide.

At the conclusion of the President's remarks, three cheers were enthusiastically given for Andrew Johnson and three more for General Grant. The President and General Grant then retired, arm in arm, and the Committee and the audience commenced to disperse.

ANOTHER PROCLAMATION ISSUED.

Insurrection Ended in Texas.

MAXIMILIAN'S PAPER BLOCKADE.

Men of War Ordered Along the Mexican Coast.

WASHINGTON, D. C., August 19.—The President has issued a proclamation, in which he recites the various proclamations issued by his predecessor, concerning the existence of an armed rebellion in opposition to the laws, the suspension of the writ of habeas corpus, the concurrent resolutions of Congress respecting the object of the levy of troops, the subsequent peace proclamations, and the proclamation of April, 1866. It concludes as follows:

"And whereas, The President, in the said proclamation of the 13th of June, 1865, upon the grounds therein stated and herein before recited, did then and thereby proclaim the insurrection which heretofore existed in the several States before named, except Texas, was at an end, and was henceforth to be so regarded; and

Whereas, subsequently to the said second day of April, 1866, the insurrection in the State of Texas has been completely and everywhere suppressed and ended, and the authority of the United States has been successfully and completely established in the said State of Texas, and now remains therein unresisted and undisputed, and such of the proper United States officers as have been duly commissioned within the limits of the said State, are now in the undisturbed exercise of their official functions; and

Whereas, The laws can now be sustained and enforced in the said State of Texas by the proper authorities, State or Federal, and the people of the said State of Texas like the people of the other States before named, are well and loyally disposed, and have conformed or will conform in their legislation to the condition of affairs growing out of the amendment of the Constitution of the United States prohibiting slavery within the limits and jurisdiction of the United States; and,

Whereas, All the reasons and conclusions set forth in regard to the several States therein officially named, now apply especially and in all respects to the State of Texas, as well as to the other States which had been in insurrection; and

Whereas, Adequate provision has been made by military orders to enforce the execution of the acts of Congress and the civil authorities, and secure obedience to the Constitution and laws of the United States within the State of Texas, if a resort to military force for such purpose should become necessary.

Now, therefore, I, Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, do hereby proclaim and declare that the insurrection which existed in the State of Texas is at an end, and is to be henceforth regarded in that State as in the other States before named, in which said insurrection was proclaimed to be at an end by the aforesaid proclamation of the second day of April, 1866; and I do further proclaim that the said insurrection is at an end, and that peace, order and tranquility, and civil authority now exist in and throughout the United States of America. In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the City of Washington the 20th day of August, 1866, and of the independence of the United States of America, the ninety-first.

ANDREW JOHNSON.

By the President:
WM. H SEWARD, Secretary of State.

In accordance with the Presidents proclamation of the 17th instant, declaring null and void Maximilians paper blockade of Matamoras and other Mexican ports, the Navy Department has detached two men-of-war, to be stationed at the mouth of the Rio Grande. The commander of the Pacific squadron has also received orders to send two men-of-war to Mazatlan and Guaymas, to protect United State interests on the Pacific Coast.

INDIAN WAR COMMENCED

Battle at Fort Reno.

UNITED STATES TROOPS REPULSED.

Nine Trains Reported Burnt.

NEW YORK, Aug. 18.—A Tribune Leavenworth dispatch says: Reports from Forts Sedgewick and Laramie confirm those announcing the burning of seven trains north of Fort Reno, in which from thirty-five to forty soldiers were killed, and that the Indian war had commenced with untold fury. The 18th United States infantry have been repulsed north of Fort Reno. Whole trains of emigrants are fleeing from the mountain valleys for safety.

Troubles Between Whites and Blacks—Troops Sent For.

FORTRESS MONROE, (by Mail,) August 17.—The troubles at Drummondtown, on the eastern shore of Virginia, between the whites and blacks, which were suppressed several weeks ago by a detachment of troops sent there to restore quiet, have again broken out. A telegram was sent to Richmond for a company of troops, and yesterday afternoon Company F, 12th United States Infantry, Lieut. Keys, commanding, arrived here from Richmond. The detachment, fifty in number, was sent from here this evening, on the tug Geneva, and will be stationed for some length of time on the eastern shore, or at least until there is some prospect of the causes of the disturbances being removed.

On last Monday an encounter occurred between parties of the whites and blacks, some of whom were under the influence of liquor, but by the prompt exertions of the agent of the Freedmen's Bureau, stationed at Drummondtown, it was quelled before any serious results ensued.

A detachment of recruits, about eighty in number, arrived at Craney Island yesterday on the New York steamer, direct from New York. This is the first instalment of a large number of recruits now in New York, destined for the 11th United States Infantry regiment stationed in Richmond, Va. The Island has been prepared for the reception of these troops by soldiers detailed from the fortress. The recruits will be quarantined for ten or fifteen days, and will then be sent to Richmond for duty with the regiment.

The Fenian Pic-Nic—It Causes Consternation and Excitement—Tax on Railroad Tickets.

NEW YORK, Aug. 18.—A large number of the prominent Fenians in this city are to leave to-night, and on Monday morning for Buffalo to participate in the great Fenian Pic-Nic, the announcement of which has created considerable excitement if not consternation in Canada.

The officers of the Internal Revenue Department in this city have been instructed to collect a tax of five cents from the Dry Dock and East Broadway Railroad Company on each batch of twenty tickets, such being decided to be the agreements according to law.

Loyal Southerners' Convention.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 19.—National Hall, on Market street, below Thirteenth, has been engaged for the meeting of the loyal Southerners in convention on the 3d of September. The building is one of the largest in the city, and not far from the centre of business.

FROM CENTRAL AMERICA.

Columbian Congress Adjourned—Panama Railroad Bonds—War between British Columbia and Venezuela—Tucker's Appointment as Admiral in the Chilian Navy Distasteful—War Between Spain and South American Republics, &c.

NEW YORK, Aug. 19.—The Columbian Congress at Bogota had adjourned, ratifying the hypothecation of the Panama railroad bonds by President Mosquera in London, for seven million five hundred dollars.

A war between that power and Venezuela about a boundary line is likely to break out soon.

The appointment of the late Confederate Tucker as Admiral in the Chilian navy was distasteful to the native officers, and opposition to President Prado is being organized.

Preparations for a renewal of the war with Spain continued with the South American republics.

Destructive Fire in Jersey City—Valentine's Oil Yard Burned—Ship, Bark, Lighters, Canal Boats and Railroad Cars Burned—Supposed Loss of Life.

JERSEY CITY, Aug. 19.—Fire broke out in lighter, at Valentine's Oil Yard about 8 o'clock this morning, and spread to the house which was stored full of oil and destroyed. The oil in the house and yard extended to the California Steamship Company's Dock, destroying one ship and bark, also, about twenty lighters and canal boats lying adjacent to Valentine's Oil Yard. The Erie Company sustained comparatively a slight loss. Twenty cars were burned, mostly loaded with grain and a small portion of the new coal pier. It is supposed three men who were aboard of the canal boat asleep perished. The fire originated in the oil laden lighter from the striking of matches.

The Aquatic Contest—Pittsburgh vs. Manchester.

The second race between the crews of the rowboats "Friendship," of Pittsburgh, and the "New York," of Manchester, came off over the Monongahela course, on Saturday afternoon, at five o'clock. The bridge from which the start was made, as well as the shores, and steamers lying at the wharf, were lined with spectators, while the river itself was dotted with all kinds of craft, from the lumbering dug-out to the elegant barge and airy scull-boat. A little before the hour designated for starting, the "Friendship," manned by Wm. Jackson, stroke, Dan. Wolf, Fred. Dierst and Fred. Wolf, bow, appeared under the bridge, and were greeted with cheers and words of confidence by their friends. After a lengthy wait the "New York" hove in sight, and was also cordially welcomed. The crew, as in the former contest, were D. Lighthill, Geo. Speer, Chas. Durnin and Henry Coltart.

At the word "go," the boats started off, neither one having any perceptible advantage in the start. The Friendship attempted several times to leave their competitors, but the New York still glided side by side until the Point was reached, when she dropped about half a length behind. This they continued to do, until at the buoy the Friendship was three lengths in advance. In turning, this distance was considerably lessened, partly owing to the fact that the buoy around which the Pittsburghers were forced to turn was too close to shore and some further down the stream than that of the New York. When the boats were fairly on the home stretch, the Friendship, in endeavoring to pass to the other side of the New York, was struck by the latter boat, which the Manchester boys believed to bar their chances of success, and they withdrew from the contest, claiming a foul. The Friendship came into the goal in 32.14—fourteen seconds faster time than ever made before in the United States. In the evening there was a meeting of the friends of both crews at McAllister's, when after hearing the testimony, the referee, James Hamill, decided the stakes to be drawn and all bets off. The Friendship crew offered to run the race over for a purse of from one to five thousand dollars, but the New York crew refused to renew the contest. So the matter remains for the present.

Fire on Water Street.—The alarm of fire about twelve o'clock on Saturday, was occasioned by the partial burning of the Union House, a saloon kept by Charles Heubel on Water street, five doors west of Wood street. The fire was occasioned by the chimney taking fire, and as the flue was defective, it communicated with the roof, which was soon in flames. The fire department was almost immediately upon the ground, and the flames were soon extinguished. The back part of the house was flooded with water from roof to cellar. The damage will not exceed one hundred dollars. The building is owned by James Hughes, of Lawrenceville.

Cholera Notice.—The Cincinnati Board of Health cautions the public against the use of green corn, cabbage, radishes, watermelons, cucumbers and egg plants. On Friday last the citizens of that city made a raid upon the market, and forcibly seizing everything in the shape of green vegetables, carried them to the river, and emptied them in. How is it about the miserable half rotten truck that is sold in our markets? Is Pittsburgh exempt from cholera, or have the venders license to kill.

Charged with Stealing Silver.—Mary Matthews appeared before Justice Lipp, of Birmingham, on Saturday, and preferred a charge of larceny against Susan Diel. It seems the latter entered the house of the prosecutrix, and abstracted therefrom a set of silver teaspoons in the absence of Mrs. Matthews in the country. There was strong presumptive evidence, but nothing of a positive character against Susan, and she was therefore discharged.

Attempt to Defraud.—Allen Johnston appeared before Alderman Donaldson, on Saturday, and made an information against Jacob Smith and Chas. Palmer, for attempting to defraud him out of $7 which the deponent loaned them to make the purchase of a horse. After a hearing the matter was adjusted by Johnston paying the costs and withdrawing the suit.

The Monongahela River Murder—Death of Harrison Murphy—Willich Still at Large—Post Mortem Examination—A Weapon used in Inflicting the Blow.

We have already furnished our readers with the full particulars of the desperate affray on board the steamboat Chieftain, on the Monongahela river, near Fort Perry, on Thursday night last. Harrison Murphy, the man who was struck upon the head with some heavy instrument in the hands of John Willich, died yesterday morning at two o'clock in Passavant's Infirmary. He was unconscious from the time he received the blow up to the moment of his death. Coroner Clawson was notified of the man's death and proceeded to the Hospital to hold an inquest. The following gentlemen were selected as a jury: C. W. Arnold, Henry Weaner, W. H. Steffe, James Purdy, Frank P. Case, and T. P. Houston. In the presence of the corpse the jurymen were sworn, and the Coroner proceeded to take the evidence.

Dr. H. T. Coffey, sworn.—As a practicing physician, first saw Harrison Murphy, the deceased, at the Pittsburgh Infirmary, on Thursday, August 16th; he was then in a comatose or insensible condition. Upon examination discovered a bruise upon the left side of the head above the ear, the extent of the bruise was considerable. Made an incision to discover the cause of the man's condition, and found blood oozing through the suture; applied a trepan at that point, and found a large quantity of blood lying in the cavity of the cranium. After the removal of a portion of the clot, the blood continued to ooze from the opening made in the skull, showing that an artery of considerable size had been ruptured. He was insensible from the time I first saw him up till the time of his death, which took place this (Sunday) morning at about 2½ o'clock. With Drs. A. and C. Lange and Dr. Jones, I made a post mortem examination upon the body of the deceased. Found a fracture upon the temporal bone immediately above his left ear, and directly above the zygomatic arch and covered by the temporal muscle; the fracture was about one and one-half by one and one-quarter inch in size. The bone projecting into the brain ruptured the principal arterial branches of the dura mater; death resulted from hemorrhage of these arteries. Found a clot of blood weighing between four and six ounces pressing upon the brain; the brain itself was in a perfectly healthy condition—uninjured. Undoubtedly the fracture was caused by a blow from some hard instrument as its out line was very distinct; I think it would be impossible for such a fracture to be made by the hand alone.

Dr. A. Lange had been present at the post mortem examination, and corroborated that part of Dr. Coffey's evidence.

There being no other witnesses present the inquest was adjourned, to be continued this evening at seven o'clock at the Mayor's office.

The deceased was a laborer by occupation and resided with his family in Allen township, Washington county, Pa. He leaves a widow and seven small children to mourn his untimely end. The corpse was taken home last evening by a brother-in-law of the deceased, Mr. Isaiah Crow, who visited the city for that purpose. The murdered man bore an excellent character, and, it is thought, had never before met the party who attacked and killed him on board the steamboat. John Willich, the murderer, has so far eluded the vigilance of the police, but his early arrest is anticipated by the authorities. There can be no doubt but the blow which caused Murphy's death was struck by him, and it is equally as certain that he used a pair of knucklers or a "hanly billy." Upon the whole, the murder was a dastardly one, and it is to be hoped that the blood-stained wretch who perpetrated it will be speedily brought to justice.

Coroners Inquest.

W. H. H. Hager, the young man who fell from the third story of Steppe's tobacco store on Wood street, on Wednesday last, died yesterday, in great agony, at the Mercy Hospital. He was conscious up to the very moment of his death, and the poor fellow just as he was expiring whispered his gratitude to the good Sister of Mercy attending him, and promised to pray for her in heaven.

Coroner Clawson held an inquest upon the body yesterday afternoon, and a verdict of death from accident was rendered. The deceased was a kind-hearted and noble fellow, and his death has caused sorrow to all with whom he had acquaintance. He was the only support of aged parents, who through his death, are left entirely dependent upon God and the world. We have been requested to return thanks to the Sisters of Mercy, for the kind treatment received by the deceased from their hands. Indeed, so favorably impressed with this noble institution of mercy, and the charity of the sisters in attendance, was Rev. H. D. Moore, a friend of the deceased, that he took occasion yesterday, in his sermon, in reverting to the sad accident, to pay a high tribute to the ladies having charge, and invited his congregation to share with him in his admiration for the Mercy hospital. Such a warm acknowledgement from so eminent a Protestant as Mr. Moore, speaks volumes for the institution.

A Pennsylvanian Promoted.

We find the following paragraph in the St. Cloud (Minnesota) Times: "Our esteemed friend, Capt. James M. McKelvy, has been appointed by the Governor, Judge of the Seventh Judicial District, in which our county is included. Considering the radical source from which the appointment emanated, a more acceptable one to the community could not have been made, and we congratulate our friend Mac on his elevation to the Judicial ermine. In saying that he is abundantly qualified for the position, we believe we give utterance to the sentiments of everybody who knows him."

Capt. McKelvy is a native of this county—a son of Mr. James McKelvy, a well-known citizen of Wilkins township. A few years ago, having completed his course as a law student, he removed to Minnesota, located at St. Cloud and rose rapidly in his profession. At the breaking out of the rebellion his patriotic ardor led him to enter the military service, in which he continued during the war as Captain of a company which he had raised, and was severely wounded at the battle of Nashville. His numerous friends here will be gratified to learn of his recent promotion.]

Perversions of Terms.

We notice the frequent use of terms that to our mind are misapplied. For instance the winding up of a school term is called a "commencement." This has been explained to us, but still it does not seem proper. The "end" of a thing cannot be a "commencement." But a still more common word, and one equally perverted is "sculling." A boat race is called a sculling race. This is not the case in the common acceptation of the word. To scull a boat is to propel it by means of an oar over the stern, which is "feathered" in the water. We know that many "strict constructionists" who take "Webster's unabridged" for their authority will differ with us, but we still hold to our point. He calls an elk a moose, when in reality there is as much difference between an elk and a moose as there is between a horse and a mule. We contend that to row a boat is one thing and to "scull" it, is another.

Not the Individual.

Our rotund friend Hon. T. J. Bigham was a passenger aboard a train of cars which left our city last week bearing delegates and visitors to the "wigwam" in Philadelphia. Some individual cruelly started the story that the patriotic Bigham was Vallandigham, and soon he was the observed of all observers. Some ardent Radicals quietly cursed him while timid Democrats viewed their man with evident admiration and patiently bided their time to get in a word to the supposed hero of the border. The joke was not discovered until a venturesome Democrat took his seat beside Mr. Bigham and commenced a warm speech upon the political issues of the day, when he suddenly discovered that either Vallandigham had changed much in his faith or that he himself was in the wrong box.

Severe Accident—Man Injured.

About one o'clock on Sunday morning a man named George Kiger was found in an excavation at the corner of Harrison and Liberty streets, in the Fifth ward, in an insensible condition, having evidently fallen from the street, a height of fifteen feet. He was conveyed to the Mayor's office, where Dr. M'Cook was summoned, who examined him and found three of the ribs on the left side broken and several contusions about the head, which, although painful, were not necessarily fatal. Kiger resides in the Ninth ward, and was returning home in a state of intoxication when he fell. We understand that pedestrians are—even when sober—in danger of falling into this pit-hole at night, as there is no fence or security of any sort around it.

Handsome Compliment.—On Saturday morning, our fellow townsman, Jas. Hamill, received through the Post Office a handsome testimonial from our English cousins, of the regard in which he is held by them as the representative of aquatic sports on this side of the water. It came from the Albion Rowing Club, and is a gold medal about the size of a silver dollar. On the outside edge is a raised ring, neatly chased, and on the face is engraved the following: "Presented to JAMES HAMILL, by the members of the Albion Rowing Club and their friends, as a mark of their respect for his honorable and straightforward conduct during his stay in Newcastle-on-Tyne, England." On the reverse is the following: "Great International Boat Race for £100, HAMILL vs. KELLY; rowed on Tyne, July 4th and 5th, 1866." Messrs. JOHN HAMILL and JAMES LAUGHLIN were also recipients of similar medals from the Albion. Our champion certainly made a host of friends during his sojourn in England, and these manifestations of their esteem are received in proper spirit by him.

Trimble's Varieties.—Since W. C. Smythe has assumed the managerial reins of this popular place of amusement there has been one continual rush to see the mammoth stock and enjoy the varied bill of entertainment offered nightly. Even standing room was not attainable after the curtain had went up during the whole of last week. To-night the "Three Fast Men" will be produced, before and after which an olio of singing, dancing and negro eccentricities will be given. To those who wish to spend a pleasant evening, we would say go to the Varieties.

Awkward Position.—A young lady witnessing the boat race on Saturday evening from the Monongahela bridge, put her foot into one of the holes upon that structure used for shoving the sweepings into the river. Her limb became tightly wedged in from the knee downwards, and she was firmly held in the awkward position. Her prudish delicacy necessitated the sawing away of the boards before she could be extricated. After she got her foot out she fainted and had to be carried to her residence in South Pittsburgh.

Another Destructive Fire—Burning of the Ardesco Oil Refinery—Loss Estimated at $100,000.

About one o'clock on Saturday afternoon, a fire broke out in the Ardesco Oil Refinery, by which all that portion of the works nearest the river was destroyed. The works are located just below Woods Run, and occupies the land lying between the railroad track and the river. It is exactly four weeks since the same refinery was partially burned.

The fire originated from the explosion of a tank connected with the still house, which had just been heated, and from which the benzole had just commenced running. The hands, for the most part were at their dinners, so that many of them lost their tools. Mr. John Gillson, of Manchester, one of the carpenters employed at the works, was sitting in the carpenter shop by a window, eating his dinner when the explosion took place. He was badly burned about the back, breast, hands and face, by the burning fluid flying over him, but he retained his presence of mind sufficiently to cover his mouth with his hand, and hold his breath. His injuries are very severe and painful, but not necessarily fatal. When we left the scene of conflagration his burns were dressed, and he was as comfortable as a person could be under the circumstances.

Immediately after the explosion—which a German woman who witnessed it characterized as being beautiful—the flames immediately communicated to the still house, and from thence to the barreling house. Between the barreling house and the building containing the agitators were eight large tanks, of a capacity of 175 barrels each. Fortunately but one of these was filled, and it was soon on fire. The danger to the Agitator house was now imminent, and it was only through the strenuous exertions of the fire department that it was saved. Had it caught fire the entire works would have been destroyed, but as it is the Company will not be delayed in the prosecution of their business, as the stills on the north side are all safe. The fact that the receiving house, barreling house, carpenter shops, &c., are totally destroyed, will occasion temporary embarrassment, but this will soon be overcome. The loss as near as could be ascertained, was as follows: 12,000 empty barrels, new, $30,000; still house and receiving house, $25,000; barreling house, $6,000; damage to tanks, $2,500; besides which 1,000 barrels of crude and 1,300 barrels of refined oil were burned, making a total loss of from $90,000 to $100,000. This was for the most part covered by insurance offices in the East, the Ætna and Putnam of Hartford, and the Beekman and Harmony of New York, being the sufferers.

The oil had a floating policy on it from the time that it left the stills until it left the railroad switch in transitu. We could not ascertain the amount of insurance exactly but the impression is that it will cover the loss. The explosion was occasioned by the weakness of the iron in the still.

The Neptune of this city, under the control of Chief Engineer John H. Hare, and the Grant, Hope, and Columbia of Allegheny City, did most effective service. The Neptune, to whose superhuman exertion the safety of the Agitator is mainly owing, was obliged to draw her supply of water from a well which was in the yard, and this being insufficient, the water from an immense iron tank that stood near, was turned in. Even with this extra supply the engineer was obliged to husband his little stock with all the care possible. The Grant did good service for a while from the river. The Hope and Columbia worked together, the latter supplying the former with hose, and their service combined was very effective. All that could be done by men to stay the devouring element, was done by these companies. The length of time that elapsed before the fire department could reach the ground was so great that the fire was under full headway before they could get to work, and even then they worked under every disadvantage.

Democratic Primary Elections.

On Saturday evening the election of delegates to the Democratic Convention took place. The returns, so far as we have obtained them, are as follows:

PITTSBURGH.

First ward—W. I. McGinn, H. W. Haffum.
Second ward—Jas. Irwin, Sam. L. Connell.
Third ward—Hon. R. P. Flenniken, Timothy Kinney.
Fourth ward—(No election.)
Fifth ward—1st prec't: Neal O'Donnel, Thos. Rierer.
Fifth ward—2d prec't: James M. Taylor, William Kelley.
Sixth ward—John Coyle, John Martin.
Seventh ward—John N. McClowry, John Hayes.
Eighth ward—Capt. E. W. Timmony, Samuel R. Patterson.
Ninth ward—J. R. Taylor.
Tenth ward—John Misch, John O'Connell, (contested by John A. Strain.)

ALLEGHENY.

Second Ward—William J. Kountz, William Farley.
Third Ward, First Precinct—Benjamin Crawford, Jacob Snyder.
Fourth Ward—J. T. F. Wright, Leonard Snyder.

BOROUGHS.

Monongahela—James Carlin, Arthur Boody.
South Pittsburgh—Thomas Kernen, John S. Murray.
Sewickley—Jacob Whitesell, F. M. Hutchinson.
Baldwin Township—John McRoberts, Samuel Cooley.

Something Worth Having.

We were on Saturday last presented with a copy of a new map of the United States, which is without exception the clearest, best defined and most beautiful specimen of map engraving ever produced in this country. It is large, containing twenty-four square feet, engraved on steel handsomely mounted and varnished. It is beautifully colored in thirty-seven States and Territories; cost $100,000, and four years' labor; is worth $10, yet retails for $4. It shows 3,000,000 places, 50 railways and 60,000 railway stations, 800,000 towns, villages, postoffices, cities, gold and silver mines, 20,000 stations of the overland, dispatch, mail, telegraph and emigrant routes across the Plains and Rocky Mountains. The whole Continent is shown, from the spot in the Arctic Ocean where Sir John Franklin perished, westward through Behring Straits to the Pacific, and southward 25,000 miles around Cape Horn to Greenland; water entirely surrounding this mighty continent, all seen and comprehended at a single glance. By the study of such a map is geography only learned. Persons desirous of procuring agencies should make application at the rooms of the agent for this district.

Illuminated Dispatches.

There is a genius connected with the telegraph office in this city, who has, for some time past, been furnishing us with illuminated dispatches, his genius generally running in the direction of beautiful females, or diabolical imps. His masterpiece came to hand last night. It represents Venus reclining on a couch reading a book, while flying over her is a Cupid with bow and arrow, and at the head of the couch is Sathanis, otherwise known as Beelzebub, with a most diabolical leer upon his ugly phiz. The effect is worthy the pencil of a Reubens, a Cenci, or a —Doan.

Blackberry Brandy.—An invaluable remedy for diarrhea. Take two quarts blackberry juice, 1½ pounds loaf sugar, ½ ounce of cinnamon, ¼ ounce of cloves, ¼ ounce allspice; boil thoroughly, and when cold, add a pint of brandy. The above should be carefully bottled and improves by age. The doses for an adult is a tablespoonfull, to be repeated, if necessary. This recipe is well worth a trial.

Fenian Picnic.—The Pittsburgh Circle of the Fenian Brotherhood, will hold a grand re-union pic nic to-morrow at McFarlands Grove, near Oakland. From the liberal arrangements being made we can safely promise to all who may attend, a rare day of enjoyment. The managers are determined to make this the pic nic of the season. Everybody is invited to attend.

Our National Game.—We were present at a friendly match between the first and second nines of the Ebensburg Base Ball Club, played in that town on Saturday last. Both sides made very good playing and we fancied would prove more than a match for some of our expert home clubs. Where are the Hygeias that we may have them challenge the mountain athletes to a friendly contest?

Heavy Storm.—On Saturday night we were visited by a heavy storm of thunder and lightning, accompanied by rain. There was probably more lighting than has occurred during the entire summer. The heaviest portion of the storm passed around the city. We have not heard of any damage having been done, up to the hour of writing.

Struck With a Brick.—Joseph Freitman took umbrage at some remarks made by John George, on Saturday, and pitched into him. In the fracas George was struck in the face with a brick. A warrant was issued for Frietman, but he has not yet been arrested.

Railroad Accident.—On Wednesday last a collision occurred near Lima, Ohio, between a gravel and a freight train, by which four men were killed, and several others wounded, beside making a general wreck of both trains.

Income Tax.—The amount of income tax paid into the hands of the Internal Revenue Collector on Saturday, was $83,000. To-day is the last day of grace on which to pay the tax,—after to-day, ten per cent. will be added.

Assault and Battery.—John Schaffer appeared before Alderman Taylor on Saturday and made oath against his brother Harrison, for assault and battery. The matter was adjusted by the latter paying the costs.

New Round House.—The Pennsylvania Railroad is erecting a new round house at Altoona. It will be three hundred feet in diameter, and will contain forty-four stalls for locomotives.

Blackberries.—Blackberries were never more abundant in Cambria county than this season. Choice mountain berries are sold at Cresson and Ebensburg at six cents a quart.

Heavy Frost.—Ebensburg and Cresson were visited by a heavy frost on Saturday morning.

THE NEW
Spring and Summer Medicine.

FLUID EXTRACT
SARSAPARILLA,
COMBINED WITH
Iodide of Lime,
PREPARED FOR
G. W. FETTES, BOSTON,
BY
James R. Nichols & Co.,
MANUFACTURING CHEMISTS,
MANUFACTURERS OF THE
ELIXIR PERUVIAN BARK
WITH
Protoxide of Iron,
Which has become so favorably known as a
Tonic and Restorative,
By Physicians and Invalids in all parts of the country.

The new preparation, "SARSAPARILLA IS A COMBINATION WITH IODIDE OF LIME," presents one of the most prompt alterative agents in a form capable of exerting full action upon the system, and this in minute and pleasant doses. It is conceded that the alterative, resolvent, or tonic effects of Iodine, are exerted most decidedly when associated with other alteratives, in combination; and the Sarsaparilla seems to fulfil perfectly all the favorable requisitions.

The first effect usually observed when "SARSAPARILLA WITH IODIDE OF LIME" is taken, is an increase of appetite, showing that it has tonic properties of a marked character. Its alterative effects are manifest in its ready combination with the blood and tissues. Pale, scrofulous women and children improve rapidly under its use, and the vital functions assume a healthy condition.

It is admirably adapted to a large number of chronic or acute affections peculiar to children. It is suited to them, both by the mildness and efficiency of Medicinal effect and the pleasant, attractive form of the remedy. It may be given for a long period where constitutional influences are desired, and no repugnance, or disinclination to take the syrup, encountered. In White Swellings, Hip-Joint Disease, and Distortions of the Spine, it should be given persistently, in moderate doses, until relief is obtained.

In the Spring of the Year, and during the Warm Weather,

The accumulation of morbid matters in the system seems to become manifest and very troublesome. Lassitude, Headache, Boils, Costiveness, Loss of Appetite, Pains in the Joints, Indigestion, etc., are very common. Nothing ever devised is better adapted to exterminate or drive off these affections than this new combination of SARSAPARILLA WITH IODIDE OF LIME.

No preparation like it, or which approximates to it as an

has ever before been placed within the reach of invalids. Indeed, it is an entirely NEW and SCIENTIFIC combination in no respect resembling anything hitherto employed.

The opinion of medical men concerning it, the description of its chemical character, therapeutic value, manner of use, etc., are given in a circular, which can be had at the store of any and all first-class Druggists.

PHILADELPHIA—A SUGGESTION.

On the third day of next month the loyal Union men of the Southern States will meet in Convention at Philadelphia. That the Republicans of that city will give them a cordial welcome is not to be doubted. But why not allow Republicans from all parts of the Commonwealth to participate in the greeting? We venture respectfully to suggest that the City Committee, acting by itself, or in conjunction with the State Committee, issue a call for a Grand Mass Meeting to be held in Independence Square on the evening of that day, and that an invitation be issued to the Republicans of all the counties of the Commonwealth to be present by deputations. Under such a call we are confident there would be such an outpouring of true men as would greatly strengthen the hearts and wills of all Southern loyalists, and as would show to the President and his followers that the masses of men who stood by the flag throughout the war do not mean to be cheated or cajoled out of the just fruits of all their labors and sacrifices. What say you, men of Philadelphia?

AMENDING STATE CONSTITUTIONS.

President JOHNSON has a turbulent and incendiary mental and moral organization. For good or evil, he is always in excess—in a state of absolute combustion.

Some days ago, having a point to make in furtherance of his Reconstruction Policy, he resolved to break up a peaceable convention of loyal men, assembled in New Orleans, to propose amendments to the Constitution of Louisiana. He could have accomplished his object without violence, and through the ordinary operations of the laws. He chose not to do so; but to plan and consummate a massacre, in which one hundred men were butchered and two hundred more were wounded. It will not do to say, in the light of established facts, that this slaughter was either accidental or incidental. It was deliberate, heartless, cold blooded. Within a week past, with the blood of the murdered and wounded men on his hands, the President has written a letter justifying the sanguinary excess and glorying in it. Nothing analogous to this picture has been presented for the contemplation of the civilized world, since MURAT in his insane lust of carnage, gloated over the victims of his devilish cruelty.

In January, 1865, there was a meeting in Memphis to take measures for the amendment of the Constitution of Tennessee and the election of State officers. Two schemes were proposed. One was the calling, in a regular way, of a Constitutional Convention. This was advocated by Senator TRIMBLE, Chancellor TREWHITT, Judge BUTLER, and Judge HOUK. The other scheme was to amend the Constitution in Mass Meeting of the citizens, without the interposition of a Constitutional Convention. This plan was advocated by ANDREW JOHNSON. He made a speech, occupying two hours, in favor of amending on the spot. As a specimen of his manner, we take a passage from that speech:

"What wrong is there in a primary meeting of the people proposing amendments to the Constitution? Take any individual and lock him up in one of these rooms, and then let him draw up two or three amendments to the Constitution. If the people should see fit to accept and ratify the amendments, it would be consonant to the genius of the Government to incorporate them with the Constitution. The point is, do the people ratify the amendments? Now if we call a convention, which will cause delay, will be expensive and vexatious, will that body refuse to submit its work to the people? If any man favors this, he is seeking to do something violative of the interests of the people? Here is an intelligent body, highly respectable in talent and numbers, can it not draft amendments and submit them to the people? A convention is also objectionable on the score of economy."

The Memphis Press, speaking on this point, and of this same occasion, says:

"A gentleman of undoubted veracity informed us that Andrew Johnson said to him in his room at the State House: 'By God, sir, if Buck Lewis (a colored porter at the State House) was to sit down in this office and draw up amendments, and the people voted for them, it would be constitutional, and the amendments would become a part of the constitution.'"

Now, if the men who met in New Orleans to prepare and propose amendments were not a Constitutional Convention, they were citizens, respectable in character and position. If they had been allowed to complete their labors, and if the people had then approved their work, according to the logic of ANDREW JOHNSON's Memphis speech, the change in the organic law would have been complete and valid. Both at Memphis and New Orleans the President contemplated movements only through the medium of ungovernable passions, and was ready for the most revolting processes to reach his ends.

This man has power, unless impeached, for two years and upwards. Into what farther excesses he will plunge, it is unsafe to predict. But, judging from the past, even sober minded people, have reason to look upon the future with apprehension and alarm.

THE Philadelphia Daily News pays us the high compliment of attributing our leaders to the classic and erudite pen of the Hon. THOS. WILLIAMS—than which there is not a more elegant and vigorous one in the United States. We lift our hats in respectful acknowledgment; but as this attribution is made the pretext for soundly abusing that gentleman, we are constrained to say he has not written an article for these columns during the term of the present conductors. In common decency our contemporary owes him an apology.

THE CONFLICT TO BE RENEWED.

A New Orleans correspondent of the Houston (Texas) Telegraph, after describing the incidents of the late New Orleans riot, closes his letter by saying:

"Every one thinks this is but the beginning of a wide spread and fearful contest, and in consequence the gun shops are doing a rushing business."

The New York Commercial Advertiser, a journal which leans strongly to conservatism, published a letter from a former resident of that State, who has been domiciled in New Orleans for some time. It is dated August 5th, and reads:

"DEAR BROTHER—You know I am not a politician, and do not mix with caucuses; but the time has come when the North must understand that the war is not over, and must be prepared for more bloodshed and war. I tell you it is inevitable. The feeling of fear, which the general crash of the Confederacy left in the minds of the participators, has worn off, under the soothing influence of "my policy." The hardships are forgotten, and the whole mass of the South is one seething cauldron of war and murder. This seems incomprehensible to you, for the reason that the struggle appear so hopeless; but it is true. The leaders did not contemplate a state of affairs quite so turbulent so soon; but the masses, whom they counseled to retain their hate of the United States, have, as in 1861, gone far ahead of their leaders, and now as coolly talk of the next war as if it was a fixed fact; and I, who am no alarmist, say it is a fixed fact. The whole of the Confederate army is in a state of semi-organization. It is one vast secret association, with its passwords and signals. I do not go on the streets without being signaled by every one I meet; and a groan greets every one who does not know and answer the grip and password. It must culminate in war. There is no alternative. All the rebel brigades are organized under the title of relief associations. Sheridan, two weeks ago, being satisfied that this was the case, issued an order prohibiting the organizations. A delegation was sent to Johnson, and they have succeeded in getting Sheridan removed and Hancock appointed in his place. Sheridan appointed a commission to take proof and investigate the murder and butchery of the 30th ult. The traitor Johnson has hurried Hancock on, that he may stop it and suppress the truth.

This morning Johnson has telegraphed to the rebel Lieutenant Governor, Voorhees, one of the wretches that planned the massacre and stood by and saw it accomplished, for a true account of the "riot." There is not a jury of honest men in the world that would not hang the scoundrel for murder if half of the proof of his complicity in easy reach was furnished them. (He will tell the truth, of course.) General Sheridan, the regular channel through which such information should come, is not a traitor, and, therefore, does not meet the old tailor traitor's approval. And Townsend, Assistant Secretary of War, telegraphs to one of the murderers: "The President wishes you to send this Department a true account of the murder." I can walk the street of New Orleans and tell every Union man here by his frightened air. Men, in mortal fear of their lives, are leaving the city in disguise, to escape massacre; and this, not much more than a year after they have been disbanded from the army to which these wretches surrendered.

I beg of you, and of all who can assist, do not let Johnson suppress the truth. Prepare the North to buckle on the sword at any time. Sit, yes, force the people to sit in judgment on every officer in the army. Johnson will not appoint one to a command South who is not half a traitor and the first thing you know, forts and ships will be surrendered as they were in 1861."

Admitting that abatements must be made from these statements, on the score of exaggeration, still the facts that remain do not excite pleasurable reflections. The Policy of the President has opened a fresh conspiracy throughout the Southern States, and wrested from the loyal masses many of the legitimate and substantial fruits of their heroic sacrifices and valor. Whether all those fruits shall wither and perish, or become as apples of Sodom, will be decided at the approaching elections. If the President and his followers shall succeed in defeating a sufficient number of the Republican candidates for Congress, to give him a chance to carry out his schemes, rebels and Copperheads will have the control of the government, and work out their will to a better consummation.

WE RECOLLECT that President JOHNSON, in one of his speeches in the Senate, during the session next following the breaking out of the war, charged that the leaders of the Rebellion hurried the eleven States out of the Union, without submitting the Ordinances of Secession to a vote of the people, because they knew the popular judgment was against a dissolution of the government. The President seems to have adopted the same dodge in getting the revolted States back again. He had them amend their Constitutions, so as to fit them, according to his conception, to come in again. He was careful not to have these amendments submitted to the people; but went forward to declare the reconstruction perfected. That done, the people of North Carolina have passed on the Amendments dictated by the President, and rejected them. If the people of North Carolina were not ready to go out on the terms proposed by Mr. DAVIS, neither are they disposed to come back on the conditions exacted by Mr. JOHNSON. More than this—Mr. JOHNSON had no more lawful authority for prescribing terms of getting in than Mr. DAVIS had for dictating terms of going out.

—The Delaware county (Pa.) Republican in noticing the nomination of James Riddle for Governor of the State of Delaware, says:

"Mr. Riddle was formerly a resident of this county, where he prosecuted with success the business of a manufacturer of cotton. He removed some years since from this county to Delaware, and established himself upon the Brandywine, where he resides at present. There is no more honest, upright, or conscientious man in the Diamond State—none who would administer the office of Governor with a greater regard to the interests of the whole people. He possesses great personal popularity, and should secure the vote of every man who has a desire to see the affairs of the State in the hands of a faithful, energetic and good man."

—When Admiral Farragut was ten years of age, his father, then an officer of rank in the United States navy, and high in the estimation of the Government, said in his son's hearing, that when he (the boy) was old enough to make a compact and keep it, he had a bargain to offer him. The son rose up and asked his father to state the terms of the compact. The Admiral said "The proposal that I intend to make is this: If you will not smoke nor chew tobacco, drink intoxicating drinks nor strong wines, till you are twenty-one years of age, I will then give you $1,000." "I am old enough to make that bargain now," said the young Farragut. "I will accept the offer." The bargain was closed. And on the attainment of young Farragut's majority, the cash was handed over.

—A MYSTERIOUS MURDER.—A strange murder was committed in Jerusalem, Lancaster county, Pa., on Monday. The victim was Mrs. Mary Emerson, wife of a wealthy citizen. She was found in the nursery, her child in her arms, with a dagger in her heart, around which was twined a cord. She had been nursing her child when the fatal blow was struck, and the dagger passed through one cheek of the infant, pinning it fast to her bosom. Mrs. Emerson, when discovered, had probably been dead about an hour. The wound of the child was not serious. There is not the slightest clue to the murderer. The affair is wrapped in profound mystery.

—The Boston Journal of the 15th says: "Never in the experience of medical men in this city, as we are informed, have there been so many instances of bowel complaints as now among us, especially among the young. We learn also that many cases prove fatal—suddenly so."

POLITICAL ITEMS.

—General Logan says A. Johnson is the man made President by a single constituent—Booth, the assassin—and that he well represents that lone constituent.

—President Johnson once said that traitors should "take back seats" during the work of reconstruction. In the wigwam the "front seats" are reserved for some of them.

It is now understood that Hon. N B Judd will be a competitor with Hon. John Wentworth for the nomination as the Republican candidate for Congress in Chicago district.

—Hon. Reuben Noble, of Iowa, who a year ago ran off after strange gods, has returned to the Republican fold. He attended the recent Convention in the Tenth Judicial District and approves its very radical action.

—The Copperjohnsonites found the rebels very submissive in the Wigwam; but after they have helped to take the halter from Southern necks, and to restore unconditional representation, it will be their turn to eat humble pie.—Press.

—Francis Joseph the wretched Emperor of Austria is greeted in the streets wherever he makes his appearance with cries of "Abdicate! abdicate!" The American people greet their more miserable President with the same cry.—Memphis Press.

—The Richmond (Va.) Times thinks it finds "cheering indications that it is the purpose of the President, before long, to bowstring a number of the military satraps of the radical party, and put conservative soldiers from West Point in their places. The Augean stable of the Freedmen's Bureau stands sadly in need of cleaning.

—Poor old Couch, under the inspiration of "my policy," labored under the delusion that he represented Massachusetts at the Copper-Johnson convention, forgetting that last year Massachusetts repudiated him when he wanted to be Governor by over forty-eight thousand majority. "They say an old man is twice a child."—Wash. Chron.

—Union refugees from New Orleans state that the rebels have appointed a committee to notify Union citizens to leave the city, and in proof thereof, exhibit the following notice: "Mr. ——, Sir: You are hereby notified to leave this city within seventy-two hours. Your presence cannot be longer tolerated in this community. By order of the committee."

The Administration has chosen to separate itself from those who placed it in power, and its patronage is to be turned against the Union party—to punish those who can not be purchased, and to purchase those who are for sale. After the purchase comes the transfer—to the democratic party, for Union men who go into this new movement will have Copperheads for their masters.—Albany Eve. Jour.

—The presiding justice of Shenandoah county, West Virginia, having published a proclamation warning persons of both sexes, who were in the habit of annoying the Union citizens of Woodstock by singing treasonable songs, and making use of treasonable language, that he would deal with them as disturbers of the peace, was attacked and cowhided by three of the "chivalry." Of course, they are reconstructed.

—Doolittle, on assuming the chief stool in the Philadelphia wigwam, characterized its collected braves as "a body greater in numbers and in weight of character and brain than ever assembled on this continent under one roof." The Senator's rhetoric is obscure, but his modesty charming. Each Kickapoo rising in the council to address his filthy [illegible] fellow's invariably declares his tribe the largest and most powerful nation on the globe, adding the inevitable sequence, "Big Injun me."—N. Y. Tribune.

Opening of the Opera House—the New Company.

One of the largest, most select, and appreciative audiences that ever assembled within the walls of the Opera House since it has been converted into a dramatic temple, greeted the new company and management on Saturday evening, the opening night.

The bill selected for the occasion was Lovell's play of "Loves' Sacrifice" and the farce of "My Neighbor's Wife."

We disagree with those who declared the former play too void of incident; on the contrary it is replete with fine dramatic scenes of pathos, humor and a wild passion which is quite natural under the circumstances on which the plot of the play is founded. Mr. Leak as Mathew Elmore was really good. His make up was admirable, while in many of the scenes, especially in the final one in the closing act, he far surpassed all his previous efforts. His acting never became boisterous, but was marked throughout with a quiet ease in keeping with the role.

The Margaret Elmore, of Miss Annie Waite, was excellent. It is a character that requires judicious, careful acting, without which it becomes stupid and insipid. That Miss Waite succeeded in making it what the author intended it should be, was clearly demonstrated by the showers of applause that greeted her throughout the performance, and the continued calls for her to appear before the curtain at the close of the play. Miss Waite is possessed of many fine qualities, that will go far toward making her a favorite here. In the first place she is gifted with a good stage presence, has a fine intellectual caste of countenance, capable of great expression, and what is more pleasing than all, a winning, modest, lady-like grace about all her movements that is well calculated to make her popular, even if her dramatic talent was wanting.

Mrs. Skerrett, as Hermine, was also good. She dressed and looked the gay, witty, dashing widow to perfection. Her naive archness and excellent knowledge of stage business was applauded in every scene in which she appeared, and placed her at once high in the estimation of the critical portion of the audience. This lady's popularity with our theatre goers is already attained.

Miss Louise Sylvesters' Jennie, was in keeping with the standard of excellence that usually marks all she attempts. We are glad to see that she is much improved lately.

Mr. Hagan and Mr. Ward sustained their several characters with force and ability. At some times the latter gentleman was disposed to be a little tame. Mr. Crossens' St. Lo. was good—as was also the Jean of Mr. Jackson.

Before closing our brief notice we would say a kind word in favor of Mr. Beall, the second low comedian, who in the farce gave decided evidence that he was a comedian of more than ordinary ability, while as a farcial humorist he is only excelled by Burnett himself. In fact the whole company is one of rare excellence, and we are assured the season will be as brilliant throughout as it has been propitious in opening. Manager Hess, as well as the lessee, Mr. Clapp, are deserving of the grateful thanks and support of the community for thus affording us a first class place of amusement. To-night Hamlet will be given with Laurence P. Barrett in the title role.

Arrested on Suspicion of Being Burglars.

After mid-night, or just before one o'clock, on Saturday morning, the watchmen doing duty on Federal street, Allegheny, noticed two men—with all outward appearance of gentlemen—issuing from an alley in the rear of the Citizens' Deposit Bank. Perceiving that one of the men carried under his arm a box some thirteen inches square, the suspicions of the guardian were aroused, and in his own mind he put the nocturnal wanderers down for burglars, and the contents of the box a part of their booty.

Fearing to attack them alone he secured the assistance of a brother officer and proceeded to make the arrest. Strange to state, the supposed burglars instead of making away with their treasure, quietly seated themselves on the steps of the bank supposed to have been robbed by them, and indulged in low whispering, which, to the suspicious ears of the watchmen lent additional grounds to their first supposition. Mustering up all the moral stamina in their debilitated composition the police marched with Quixotic gravity to the encounter. As they approached, the supposed robbers drew the box which they had placed on the pavement at their feet closer to them, and with a saucy gaze that was almost impertinent in thieves, sat regarding the representatives of the outraged law. Somewhat disconcerted at this cool reception they stood silently before the seated party until one of the latter mildly asked what the intruders wanted. The voice was not that of bravo, and the police felt new courage in their veins as they answered in chorus, "We want you. We want you. What have you got in that box?" The gentlemen merely exchanged glances, but did not speak, and the police continued, "What are you doing at this bank?" Still no answer. Their silence aroused the ire as well as the suspicions of the attentive guardians, and while one laid his hand on the shoulder of one of the parties and declared in the deep bass voice of authority, "You are my prisoner," the other snatched the box and ran into the middle of the street with it. How much farther he would have taken it we cannot say, but just then a pitiful wail came through the grated lid, and terrified by the unlooked for sound, the watchman cast the box on the curb and shivered it to fragments, while from amid the debris a tiny pup of the bull species, crawled forth, and set up a moan that unmistakably identified the late occupant of the suspicious box with the canine family.

The affair was so ridiculous that the gentlemen were immediately discharged from custody and allowed with their pup to proceed on in the even tenor of their way. It might be prudent to state that the gentlemen had just returned from the country on the midnight train, where they had got the dog.

ELEMENTS OF INTERNATIONAL LAW, AND LAWS OF WAR. By H. W. Halleck, LL.D., Major General U. S. Army. Philadelphia: J. B. Lippincott & Co. Pittsburgh: Davis, Clark & Co.

Gen. Halleck has made a valuable contribution towards a popular elucidation of International Law and the Laws of War. Not only is the cast of his intellect peculiarly adapted to these studies, but his professional pursuits have led him to give them a thorough investigation. He has, to a great extent, divested the text of technical phrases, so as to make the book acceptable and profitable to the general reader.

Important Decision in Reference to Bounties.

In the District Court on Saturday, an interesting decision was rendered in the case of George Cassidy, a veteran soldier, accredited to the city at large, who brought suit against the city for the $300 local bounty directed to be paid veterans, by the recent act of Assembly. The city declined to pay on the ground that the act was unconstitutional. After able arguments from J. F. Slagle, City Solicitor for the city, and J. W. Kirker, for the plaintiff, the Court decided the act constitutional, and awarded judgement in favor of the plaintiff for the full amount claimed, with the costs of the suit. It is not known whether it will be taken to the Supreme Court or not.

A Creditor Disposed Of.

Daniel O'Connor lent a small sum of money to a certain James Summers last winter under the pretense that the debt should be liquidated in ten days after. It appears James has been recreant to the trust reposed in him, and up till Saturday last had failed to redeem his pledge. On that day Connors met him in the Sirwell House, on St. Clair street, and publicly demanded the money. This kind of dunning did not meet with the approval of Summers, who summarily disposed of his creditor by knocking him down, for which offence he was taken before Alderman Donaldson and held to bail for a hearing to-day.

Insulted Her.—Maria Lang, was sued before Alderman Snyder, on Saturday, for insulting Jane Marsh on the public highway. The offense consisted in Maria heaping opprobrious epithets on the unoffending head of Miss Marsh, who feeling herself incapable of entering a pugilistic conflict with Maria, preferred a charge of surety of the peace against the latter as stated. A warrant has been issued.

False Pretense.—John J. Underwood appeared before Alderman Lynch on Saturday, and instituted proceedings against George Jolley for false pretense. According to the deposition of the prosecutor, Jolley procured from him a number of oak planks under false and fraudulent representation. The parties both reside a short distance up the Allegheny river. A warrant was issued for Jolley's arrest.

Assault and Battery.—F. H. Griffith charged John Crawford with assault and battery before Alderman Morrow on Saturday. It seems that the latter, in a fit of spleen, struck the prosecutor over the head with a horsewhip, injuring that gentleman's cranium to a considerable extent, for which he was arrested and held to bail for a hearing to-day.

Larceny.—Nicholas Vogelty was brought before Justice Lippert on Saturday, charged with stealing a horse blanket from the stable of the Justice, in Pitt township. After a hearing he was committed for a hearing on Wednesday.

Special Caution.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has become so popular that various parties have put out articles calling them Mrs. Winslow's. Please take notice that the Mr. Winslow of the Soothing Syrup is not connected with any other article. jy11:d&w

EARLY TELEGRAMS.

FROM WASHINGTON.

Appropriations by the Last Congress—New Hampshire Delegation Wait on the President.

NEW YORK, August 18.—A Tribune special says: The following are the principal amounts appropriated by the last Congress for the services of the Government, as appears by the acts already published, which, it is believed, comprise nearly all the appropriation acts: Legislative, executive and judicial service, $25,412,550; civil and miscellaneous service, $5,720,643; collecting revenue from customs, $1,200,000; consular and diplomatic service, $1,405,180; Indian service, $4,971,350; naval service, $18,904,667; military service, $41,257,000; pensions, $15,440,000; rewards for the capture of assassins, $105,000; various accounts for deficiency, $2,500,000; total, $122,005,307. This does not include the amounts necessary to pay the bounties under the recent bounty law, for which no amount is given, and there are numerous other appropriations made to which no sums are affixed.

The Treasurer variously estimates the amount required under the bounty act at from $60,000,000 to $200,000,000, and the other objects for which no specific amounts are given at from $100,000 to $500,000.

Among the items on the civil appropriation bill is one directing the payment out of the commutation fund arising from the draft, which now amounts to about $12,000,000, the sum of three hundred dollars for each slave who either enlisted or was drafted; to be paid to the loyal owners of the slaves. The benefits of the bill are confined to the slave States represented in Congress since 1861. The amount necessary to make the payment will be about $10,000,000.

The Commissioners appointed by the Secretary of War to make rules for the payment of bounties, have not yet concluded the work, but it is understood they will make swindling the soldiers and those entitled to the money by claim agents a very up hill business. This Commission is now discussing the feasibility of a plan recommended by the Paymaster General, for the sending of paymasters into each Congressional District, and there distributing to each claimant the specified bounty. This proposition meets with warm opposition, as the inability of every soldier to correctly prepare his record of papers and the necessary expense of bringing two witnesses from a distance to testify before the paymasters, will lay the soldiers liable to a class of swindlers so numerous during the days of substitutes. The State agents are urging that the moneys be collected here, and that as the State records are necessary to be searched in many cases, a special provision be made in States where they file papers endorsed by the official seal of their State.

The Herald's special says: The New Hampshire delegation to the Philadelphia Convention waited upon the President, yesterday, with an address and complimentary resolution. The President said he could not but be mindful of their manifestations of confidence in him, and on an intimation from the delegation that they would like to take home some declaration that only those who supported the principles of the Administration should receive the public patronage, he said that the power and offices of the government should be given only to those who support the Government and the wise declaration of principles set forth by the great Convention just adjourned.

THE WAR IN SOUTH AMERICA.

Napoleon Interested in the Situation of Affairs—Financial Panic at Montevideo.

NEW YORK, August 18.—The Herald's correspondence from the seat of war in the Platte Valley, dated Buenos Ayres, June 28th, says: The Argentines are becoming tired of the war. In Uruguay and Brazil the same feeling prevailed. The ministry at Rio Janeiro has been completely defeated on a vote, and demand a fusion.

Louis Napoleon, it was rumored, was suspiciously interesting himself about the situation of affairs in that region. A captain of the French army had arrived with orders to note minutely the progress of events and report.

A financial panic had seized the business people at Montevideo, and a heavy run upon the bank was the result. The government had issued a decree authorizing their suspension for six months.

Baron Parte Allegre is still at Itapu with ten thousand men, and the allied fleet is anchored below Fort Curapati, debarred from any further advance by the obstructions in the river. The sanitary condition of the allied army is unsatisfactory, intermittent fever having assumed the form of an epidemic among them.

The Scientific Convention.

BUFFALO, August 18.—Among the papers offered at the Scientific Convention yesterday, E. B. Elliott, of Boston, read one on the Mutual Action of the Elements on Electric Currents.

Professor Horsford, one on the Effects of Sunshine on Fire.

Professor Hough one on Automatic Registration of Meteorological Phenomena.

Dr. Hunt one on the Primeval Atmosphere.

At the special evening session Rev. Dr. Chester, of Buffalo, read a tribute to the scientific and religious character of the late Professor Hitchcock, of Amherst College, by Mrs. Phelps, of Baltimore. This was followed by a paper, read by Professor Cooke, of Harvard University, entitled Scientific Study as a Means of Discipline, and the Place they Ought to Occupy in our American Colleges.

This afternoon the Convention makes a steamboat excursion on the Niagara river to Lake Erie. The Convention proposes to visit Niagara Falls next Tuesday.

Not a single case of cholera has been reported in this city up to the present time. The weather is cool.

The Canada Confederation Scheme.

NEW YORK, Aug. 18.—A special from Buffalo says: It is believed here that the announcement through the cable of the plan of Canadian Confederation being settled is an error. The Quebec scheme was not accepted by the other Provinces, and nothing can be consummated this year.

Immense Fenian Demonstration.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

SATURDAY, August 18, 1866.

The New York stock quotations to-day were as follows: Gold, 150¾; 1881s, 111; 5-20s, old, 116½; new do, 108¾@108⅞; 10-40s, 101¾; 7-30s, 106¾. Cleveland & Pittsburgh R R, 86¾; Fort Wayne, 104½; Michigan Southern, 84¾; Erie, 70; Western Union Telegraph, 59, Chicago & Rock Island, 106⅞.

Gold continues a little weak and a fraction lower. The speculators made the most of the rise of Thursday, which was caused principally by them, with the European news for a pretext. It is now generally conceded that there will be no war between France and Prussia—the government of the former having officialy declared its aversion to an appeal to arms, and having retracted its demands (!) the only remaining source of trouble is the settlement of the details of the territorial questions between the late belligerants and the pecuniary impositions upon the defeated States by Prussia. These matters, however, will hardly pass out of the diplomatic hands of the commissioners engaged in adjusting them.

—The growing demand for petroleum in Europe, and the consequently increasing shipment of that article from this country, is one of the quiet wonders of the day, which, owing to its unobtrusive nature, is not enough considered. The exports of Philadelphia in this single matter grew to 10,422,437 gallons in the single year, and in but seven months of that year. They were 1,020,777 in 1865, and 12,043,214 in 1866. Boston doubled her exports; Baltimore nearly trebled hers, and New York, which exported 1,281,937 gallons in 1865, sent off 16,068,253 in 1866. These four ports raised their exports in the months named from 7,716,092 to 30,181,142 gallons—more than quadrupling their business.

—It has already been stated that on the 1st of August, present, the temporary loans of the government were reported by the Secretary of the Treasury to amount to $118,935,460, and that of this amount $50,000,000 is on deposit for clearing house purposes at 4 per cent. The remainder of the sum, $68,935,465 is made up of individual and company deposits represented by certificates bearing 5 per cent interest, and this sum is the third that the Secretary has notified holders will be redeemed with interest to the 26th instant, and that after that day they will cease to bear interest. Of course the great bulk of the certificates covering the sixty-eight millions will be paid at the time named. The Treasury feels rich enough to do it, and it ought to be done. The interest on the August Seven-Thirty notes, now due and being paid by the government, amounts to $10,360,000. The payment of the temporary loan is another step in earnest toward resumption. It is expansion for the moment, but through the case in money it is sure to produce funding of the short currency debt and the debt reduced to uniformity. After the temporary loans are paid the Treasury will have nearly a full year before the principal of any of the currency debt will mature. In June 1868, about $7,500,000 of compounds fall due, and in July and August $40,000,000, but these amounts can be readily met. The Seven Thirties are fast passing into Five Twenties, and as much as $2,000,000 were understood to have been converted at New York on Wednesday.

—The stock market took an upward turn yesterday, and was very active till the close of business. This was induced by the treasury circular announcing the readiness of the Secretary to redeem the outstanding certificates of deposit on or before August 26. The total amount of temporary loan outstanding on the 1st of August was $118,935,460. About $50,000,000 of this amount is represented by clearing house certificates, which are not called in; so that nearly $70,000,000 will remain to be redeemed. A considerable portion of these certificates are held by the banks, who will invest the proceeds of their redemption in other governments; so that the whole of this amount cannot be considered as so much loose money thrown upon the market, seeking temporary borrowers, or investment in paper. The result, however, must be to materially ease the money market at the time when the call for money to move the crops usually cause a rise of 1 per cent in the rate of interest; and the ease will be all the more felt because the large disbursements of national bank notes by the treasury, in the way of redemption, will enable the banks to send out that class of money to the West instead of parting with their legal-tenders. This notice has for a long time been anticipated, as it was evidently such bad economy for the treasury to pay interest on such a large sum merely that it might remain locked up in the treasury. The balance in the New York sub-treasury has for months been the neighborhood of a hundred million dollars, and this large balance has been kept on hand with little direct benefit except to the lenders, for whom it furnished a very convenient and profitable way of keeping their surplus funds as against a period of speculation, and the government has paid the privilege of paying interest thereon. We would like to hear the justification for not applying this balance to a reduction of entire payment of the temporary loan months ago, which does not hold equally good now.—Phila. Press.

—There never has been so much business done in the Boot and Shoe trade at Boston, in the same time, as since the first of August. The quantity of Boots and Shoes forwarded by railroad and sea for the week ending August 9, was 55,562 cases. The stock on hand is now exhausted, and there are orders on hand that will take two months to fill.

[By Telegraph.]

New York Stock and Money Market

NEW YORK, August 18.—The money market remains easy at 4@5 per cent on call loans, with some business at 3 per cent on governments. Prime Discounts are 5½@6½ per cent. The Gold market closed up at 148⅞, the extremes of the day were 148⅞ and 151. The Government securities were firm this afternoon, and higher prices were made on 7-30 notes. The following were the closing prices; 10-40 coupons, 101¾@101⅞; August 7-30s 107⅝@107⅞. Stock market at the close was excited on Erie, and a large business was transacted upon at 71¾; the balance of the list was steady and quotations were not materially changed from the report in our previous edition. The advance on Reading and Rock Island, has been quite marked during the day, and Fort Wayne was also higher in the morning. Stocks this afternoon; Benton Gold Race, 160@164; Consolidated Greggory was also in demand. Gold from 170 to 180, Gunnell, was 165@195; New York, 120@122; Wallkill, 130; Downieville, 120@130, Bennehoff Run Petroleum, 600@670.

Money steady, at 4@5 per cent. Sterling dull and heavy, at 107@107½. Gold lower; opening at 151, declining to 148⅞, and closing at 149¼. Total exports of specie to-day $66,260. Governments are quiet and without decided change. Freights to Liverpool quiet and very firm.

The Commercial's money article says: The Stock market is again firmer, but the amount of transactions is limited. At the Board prices were generally a fraction higher, except on some of the western stocks, Erie especially was firm under an active demand from strong buyers, advancing at the Board ⅝. After the Board the market was very strong, and Erie advanced 71¾@71⅞, with which the whole list sympathized, prices being ⅛@¼ per cent. above the Board's figures. Governments are moderately active; 7-30's recovered from the extreme decline of yesterday afternoon, the first series advancing ⅜ and the second and third series ⅜, 5-20's of the second and third of banks and bankers to find borrowers. Money is offered very freely, at 3@4 per cent., 5 per cent being now an unknown rate. Discounts are quiet, at 5½@6½ per cent for prime paper. Gold weak; the price after opening at 151 having fallen to 148⅞. There is less demand for borrowing, and the rate of interest is easier. Total specie shipments for the week, $117,900.

The Post's money article says: The Stock Exchange has a more lively speculative activity, and there appears to be a general anticipation of a further improvement. The decline in gold is attributed to more pacific news from Europe yesterday, and to the report that Mr. McCulloch will shortly sell part of his accumulated coin. The loan market is easy, with little inquiry. Commercial bills are more plenty. Railroad shares are firm without much activity. After board Erie was 71⅝; Hudson, 118¼. The steamers took out to-day $66,260.

The Milwaukee Wheat Corner.

The principal sensation on 'Change to-day was the "wheat-corner in Milwaukee, by which several of our principal operators have been roughly handled. Some two weeks ago, a delegation of our wheat dealers, with a sprinkling from Indiana, sold short largely in Milwaukee at $1,65@1,80 for delivery this week. As soon as a sufficient line had been put out to justify the Milwaukee "bulls," they immediately bought up all the cash wheat, and are now turning the screws rather severely. Yesterday they put up cash wheat to $2,15, and to-day offer to settle for $2,20. Additional margins are being called for, and it is jocularly reported that some of our bankers are doing a large business in Milwaukee exchange. Threats of repudiation are indulged in freely, on the ground that the "corner" is a preconcerted swindle, and that the clique might as well ask $4@10 as $2.20, as they hold the wheat. This is only a repetition, though not on so extensive a scale, of what has been frequently done here, by the victims in the present case, and can be truly called another instance of history repeating itself. A few car loads of No. 2 spring have been shipped from this city to counteract the effects of the "corner" in individual cases.—Chicago Tribune, 18th.

Chicago Lumber Market.

CHICAGO, August 18.—There is a very active demand for good bright cargoes, and prices for such are firmer, but common and inferior cargoes sell slowly. Sales to-day were: 150 m ⅝ strips at $19; 85 m long timber at $21; 110 m joist and scantling at $18; 100 m narrow boards at $20; 70 m ⅝ strips, balance boards at $18; 100 m, sold to arrive, good mill run strips at $22; strips at $17.50; 20 m sawed long timber at $21; 65 m boards, strips, scantling and joist at $19; 10 m lath at $4; 100 m joist and scantling at $17.50; 120 m, balance mill run at $19; 50 m common mixed at $14.75.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
SATURDAY, August 18, 1866.

With the exception of a little "spirit" in Flour and Wheat, both of which have advanced materially, the produce markets have been dull and inactive during the past week, and values, generally speaking, have undergone but little change. There is an almost an entire absence of anything like a speculative feeling, owing to a want of confidence on the part operators, and as the demand for most of the leading commodities is very much restricted, we have but few round lot operations to report.

GRAIN—Wheat is firm, excited and unsettled; sale of 2 cars No. 1 Chicago Spring on private terms. Oats quiet but steady, with regular sales from store at 53 to 55. Corn is firm, and may be quoted at 75 to 80, on track, in elevator, according to quality. Nothing doing in Rye or Barley.

FLOUR—Is very firm and the market is somewhat excited, and prices are tending upward. We now quote good to choice Spring Wheat at $10,75 to $11,25; $11,50 for choice, and $12,50 to $13 for Winter Wheat. Rye Flour is quoted at $6,25@6,50, and Cornmeal at 95 to $1 per bush.

PROVISIONS—Quiet and steady but unchanged. We quote at 17¼ to 17½ for Shoulders; 18¼@19 for Ribbed Sides; and 25@26 for Sugar Cured Hams. Lard is dull but firm at 22@22½ for kettle rendered. Mess Pork at $33,50, and quiet.

APPLES—The arrivals of Apples continue large, and with a supply largely in excess of the demand, the market is very dull and there are no established prices. Quotations may be fairly given at $1,50 to $2 per bbl—$2,50 @3 in small lots.

BUTTER—Is quiet but steady with a moderate local demand, and we can report small sales of fresh packed, in small packages, at 28 @30 cts.

EGGS—There is some little inquiry for shipment, but otherwise the market is dull though prices are unchanged at 16 to 18.

CHEESE—Is quiet and unchanged; sales of Western Reserve at 14½@15¼; Hamburg at 16@17 for prime York state Goshen at 21.

HAY—Is selling at scales at from $18 to $24 per ton, according to quality.

POTATOES—Dull; small sales from store at $2,75 per bbl.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
SATURDAY, August 17, 1866.

CRUDE—The market for Crude was again active to-day, there being quite a spirited demand both for present and future delivery, but prices are not quotably higher. Quotations may be fairly given at 15, bbls returned, and 20, bbls included—although we understand there was a sale of bulk on at 15½. The following sales were reported: 200 at 15; 300 at 15; 200 on private terms; 275 at 15; 200 at 15; 200 at 15, and 500 for September at 15; 225 at 15. There may have been other sales, but the above are sufficient, in our opinion, to establish the fact that the price of oil to-day was 15c, though it is possible some holders may have asked a fraction more. During the early part of the week, the market was a little tame, and in fact it continued so until Friday, when quite a spirited demand sprung up very suddenly, and compared with the prevailing rates at that time, an advance of fully one cent per gallon has been established.

REFINED—There was no abatement in the demand for bonded oil to-day, and the reason why the transactions in the aggregate are not up to those of yesterday, is owing to the fact that there is but little offering, and some of our refiners, who are in condition to sell, seem disposed to hold off in anticipation of still better prices. The following sales were reported:

500 bbls October in Phila	"	41½
500 " December	"	45
500 " September	"	41
500 " November	"	45
1500 " October—on cars at works		37½
500 " September—on cars here		37¼
500 " light straw to white		35½
500 "	"	35

In free oil, there is no movement worthy of special notice. The demand continues very light, being restricted almost entirely to supplying the wants of the retail trade. Cleveland seems to have a monopoly of free oil trade in the west, though as a general thing, our refiners do not care much about it.

ARRIVALS—The arrivals of oil continue fair, but thus far the receipts on the recent rise have not been as large as generally expected. The following were reported to-day:

J. Gallagher	298	W. P. Logan	45
Jas. Wilkins	381	J. T. Stockdale	121
J. Mawhinney	50	Fisher & Bro	66
D. Bushnell	320	Baxter & Ellison	300

New York Produce Market

NEW YORK, Aug. 18.—Cotton less active but prices are without material change, at 31@32c for middling uplands. Flour less active and 10@15c lower, with sales at $8,75@10, for extra state; $10,40@13,35 for extra R. H. O., and $10,40@12 for trade brands, closing dull. Whisky dull and nominal. Wheat rather easier with only moderate demand; sales of 29,000 bush., at $2,25 for new No. 1 Milwaukee; $2,75@2,85 for new amber Michigan; and $2,22 for mixed spring. Corn opened heavy and easier, and closed rather more steady; sales of 146,000 bush. at 80@82c, inferior 82@82c. Oats is better; sales of 70,000 bush. at 45@47c; Chicago, 47@52c; Milwaukee 54@55c. Petroleum firm at 28@29c for crude, and 44@44½ for refined in bond. Weekly Review.

NEW YORK, Aug. 18.—There has been much excitement in Breadstuffs during the past week, and prices have rapidly advanced. This has been caused by the heavy storms at the South and West. Provisions have been more active, and prices are higher with the exception of Cut Meats which are lower. Petroleum and Cotton have been fairly active, but prices are variable. Merchandise generally is very dull and heavy, owing to the absence of business men from the city. Flour has been active, and grades have advanced from 50@75 cents a barrel. Family brands $1 25@1 50; low grades close, easier and dull. Wheat firm and quite active, and has advanced from 15@20 cents a bushel on Spring, and 8@10 on Winter. Supply of choice quantities very moderate, and is much wanted, the demand is chiefly confined to Millers, the stock is considerably reduced. Oats has been a very active, and prices advanced from 5@7 cents a bushel. The demand is partly speculative. The arrivals large, but this has failed to check the upward tendency. Corn extremely active, fluctuating daily, closed strong, 82@c for mixed. Rye has rapidly improved, with a brisk demand, closing at 90@90c. Pork has been more active, and the demand is in part speculative. Prices have improved under a continued depletion to stock. Beef has been in good demand, and sales very firm. But meats and Bacon have declined rapidly under anticipated arrivals from Liverpool.

Buffalo Market.

BUFFALO, August 18.—Flour; 300 bbls No 1 spring sold at $10,50. Wheat scarce; 6,000 bush amber Michigan sold $2,30. Corn; sales 20,000 bush at 65@68c for Toledo, 69@70c for No 1, and 63c for No 2, 15,800 bush No 1 sold at 69c. Oats 14,000 bush prime No 1 Chicago sold at 39c. Barley nominal. Rye; 20,000 bush sold at 90c. Green Bay held at 70c. Pork, $34,50.

Chicago Market.

CHICAGO, Aug. 18.—Flour quiet. New wheat active, and 5@6c higher, $1,90@1,95 for No. 1, and $1,55@1,58 for No. 2; old dull. Corn active, at a decline of ½c; at 54@55c for No. 1, and 55@56c for No. 2. Oats dull, at 27@28c for No. 1. Highwines dull, at $2,28 for bonded, and $2,33 for free. Mess pork $31,00.

Toledo Market.

TOLEDO, August 18.—Flour quiet. Wheat—New 3c lower; Old 7c lower, sales New Amber at $2,60, New White $2,58, Old Amber $4,02½. Corn dull and 1c lower, Mixed Wabash is held at 63c, sales White at 81@82c. Oats—sales at 38c for New.

Milwaukee Market.

MILWAUKEE, August 18.—Flour unchanged. Wheat—$2,15 for No. 1. Corn, 56½c. Oats steady.

New York Iron Market.

NEW YORK, August 18.—The market for Pig remains as last noticed, quiet but steady, with a moderate demand for immediate consumption. We notice 100 tons Glengarnock Scotch at $48 from yard; and 100 do, No. 2 American, $46 at E Port; No. 1 at $48, scarce. The other sales are 500 tons American Rails at $80 at Philadelphia; small lots English at $51 gold; 400 tons old rails, mostly $49; and 126 do English wrought scrap, to arrive, on terms not made public. Bar is quiet and steady at our quotations for lots from store—invoices are dull.—Com. List.

Baltimore Cattle Market.

BALTIMORE, August 17.—The offerings during the past week were 740 head, against 710 head previous week. Prices to-day ranged as follows: Inferior cattle $5.50@6, common to fair $6@7, good $8@8,50, and prime $9@9,25 per 100 lbs. There were more good cattle in market to-day than usual, and we feel assured that the retail market shows a decline of 25c per 100 lbs on all good qualities of beef. The market closed dull.

Sheep—Supply very fair; sales are making at 5@6c per lb, gross.

Hogs—Are coming in very freely, and the market is heavy at $15.50@16 per 100 lbs.

Baltimore Coffee Market.

BALTIMORE, August 17.—With reduced stock there is some inquiry on the part of the trade, but holders are firm. The sales for the week include 1900 bags Rio, principally in lots from second hands, ranging as to quality, from 16 to 19½c gold. On Thursday an invoice of 970 bags, ex bark May Queen, understood at 14½c, gold, in bond, bark Adalaide, with 6,500 bags Rio arrived since our last review, and the cargo which is mostly choice is held at 14½c, in bond. Stock to-day, 9000 bags Rio in first hand Since writing the above we learn that 4000 bags Rio, ex bark Adelaide, has been sold on private terms.

RIVER NEWS.

The river continues to recede rapidly at this point with but thirty-three inches in the channel by the pier marks last evening. The weather continues cloudy, warm and unsettled. We had heavy rains on Saturday night, accompanied by thunder and lightning, and considerable rain fell during yesterday forenoon.

The Advance and Forest, from Parkersburg, are the only arrivals we have to record. The Grey Eagle cleared for Parkersburg on Saturday, as did also the Arabian for Cincinnati. The latter boat had an excellent trip, having all the freight she could take.

The Ida Rees, from Cincinnati, and the Kenton, from St. Louis, are the first boats due, and the Rees may possibly reach here to-day.

It is rumored that the Forest City and Leni Leoti will ply during the low water between here and Wheeling, connecting with the Bayard and Grey Eagle, which boats will run between Wheeling and Parkersburg.

The Kenton and Amelia Poe arrived at Louisville on Thursday last. The Louisville Journal says in regard to the Poe: The Amelia Poe came up yesterday on her way to Pittsburgh from Fort Benton direct. It is said that the Poe cleared over $40,000 in gold dust.

It was reported at Louisville that there had been three cases of cholera on board the Amelia Poe.

The St. Louis Republican says: Grim Death still continues his ravages amongst steamboatmen. Abe Gilbert, engineer of the Little Rock, and O. V. Clark, barkeeper of the Lexington, died yesterday afternoon after a very short illness. Both were old steamboatmen and universally respected. Mr. Gilbert leaves a wife and two children to mourn his loss.

Wednesday a man died on the steamer Mississippi of cholera. The captain of the boat, J. Y. Hurd, put the corpse off at the wharf at Cincinnati, and was arrested by officer Robinson. Squire Shannessy fined him $100 (the highest fine) and costs. The Captain appealed to the Circuit Court, where he can be fined $500,00.

The Cincinnati Enquirer, of Saturday, has the following:

The river at this point presents a very green and stagnant appearance, which we are at a loss to account for. The river is very low, and has been so before, yet the water then was of a clear or white color. An old settler informs us that the river in 1832, when cholera was bad in this country, presented the same appearance.

The Kenton came in from St. Louis yesterday, and after discharging a small amount of freight at this port, took her departure for Pittsburgh.

The Amelia Poe came in from St. Louis yesterday afternoon, with fair trip of freight for this port. It will be remembered she has been absent from this port for some time past, on a voyage to the gold regions.

—We extract the following items from the Cincinnati Commercial, of Friday:

The Mollie Norton having been detained at Four Mile, did not arrive until late yesterday afternoon.......Mr. Chas. Regnier, late of the Sherman, is associated with Mr. F. S. Dunlap, in the office of the Nora.......Mr. Martin Herron, a well-known steamboat mate, died of cholera yesterday morning, at his residence in Covington......In addition to the death of mate Herron, it is our melancholy duty to also record the death of Robert W Terry, of cholera, at his residence in Millersport, Ohio, on the 11th inst., after an illness of seven hours. Capt. Terry commanded the Golden Era, Robt. Burns, and Havana, in the Marietta, Memphis, and Nashville trades. He leaves an interesting family to mourn his loss......The Ida Rees left with a moderate trip for Pittsburgh, including a large number of oil barrels......The submarine Underwriter left Cairo yesterday for the wreck of the Messenger, sunk in the Mississippi, above Memphis. Capt. Dean having contracting with the Underwriter to raise the Messenger. Capt. Dugan, who has been absent at Pittsburgh, left for Cairo, last night, to resume command of the Underwriter. We shall soon hear that the Messenger has been raised, although all of her cargo is more or less damaged, as she was sunk to the lower deck......The insurance companies interested in the wreck of the burned Bostona No. 3, yesterday held a meeting, and delegated Capt. Jas. Hughes, President of the Magnolia, and Capt. Dan. Coller, of the Eureka offices, to proceed to the wreck at once, for the purpose of recovering her machinery, which is valuable. Both gentlemen being practical steamboatmen, are ably qualified for the contemplated work......Business was unusually dull along the levee yesterday. In fact, the wharf daily wears the appearance of Sunday......The numerous friends of Capt. Bart. G. Leiper will be delighted to hear that he is recovering from his recent serious illness.

PROPOSALS.

PENNSYLVANIA

Agricultural Land Scrip for Sale.

THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT having granted to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania Land Scrip, representing 780,000 acres of Public Land, for the endowment of Agricultural Colleges in this State, the Board of Commissioners now offer this land scrip to the public. Proposals for the purchase of this Land Scrip, addressed to "The Board of Commissioners of Agricultural Land Scrip," will be received at the Surveyor General's Office, at Harrisburg, until Wednesday, August 15, 1866.

This land may be located in any State or Territory, by the holders of the scrip, upon any of the unappropriated lands (except mineral lands) of the United States which may be subject to sale at private entry. Each piece of scrip represents a quarter section of one hundred and sixty acres. Bids must be made as per acre, and no bids will be received for less than one quarter section.

The Scrip will be issued immediately on the payment of the money to the Surveyor General, one-third of which must be paid within ten days and the remaining two-thirds within thirty days after notification of the acceptance of the bid or bids by the Board of Commissioners.
